CENTRAL MINNESOTA
CMMHC
MENTAL HEALTH CENTER

MARAH WALKER

Marah Walker is a School Linked Mental Health (SLMH) Professional in the Buffalo-Hanover-Montrose School District at the Central Minnesota Mental Health Center (CMMHC). She received her Master's degree in Social Work from Washington University in St. Louis with a concentration in Clinical Social Work. She is also a Licensed Independent Clinical Social Worker (LICSW). Before joining CMMHC, Marah held internship positions in school-based and community-based mental health organizations, providing group and individual psychotherapy to children, adolescents, adults, and families.